Kay Arthur is our featured speaker for the main conference sessions and our special guest for the Leaders Time Apart on Friday morning. She is an international Bible teacher and five-time Gold Medallion award-winning author of more than 100 books and Bible studies. Kay Arthur founded Precept Ministries International with the vision to establish people in God's Word, reaching over 140 countries with inductive Bible studies translated into more than 65 languages. Kay is also the teacher and host of Precepts for Life, a radio and television program.

Sue Dodge is our featured soloist. When Sue sings, hearts soar on the wings of faith, hope and worship. When she speaks, hearts are strengthened by her practical application of biblical truth interspersed with real world lessons from her life as a mother and minister's wife. Sue Dodge is the winner of four consecutive Dove Awards, singing gospel music for more than three decades. Her national radio and television appearances include the "In Touch" program with Charles Stanley, the 700 Club and TBN. She is a favorite on the Bill Gaither Home Coming and video series.

Sue Duffield will be leading our worship. Fresh, energetic, and anointed describes the worship style of Sue Duffield. As an accomplished singer/songwriter and speaker, Sue has led worship for many audiences including women's conferences and retreats. She was a featured music guest at the General Council in Washington, DC and continues to sing and speak for various denominational and ecumenical venues – while greatly holding on to her strong Pentecostal roots. Sue has been blessed with the art of combining comedy and spirit-filled messages that encourages through the gift of laughter. She will have a "light-hearted" segment in our Saturday morning session.

Kate Gosselin will be sharing in our Friday afternoon session. Jon and Kate Gosselin have been blessed with twins and sextuplets in just three years! They talk about their struggles raising such a large family of a unique makeup and how they have trusted God through it all! Currently, they have a show on TLC entitled 'Jon & Kate plus 8' which chronicles their daily lives as the parents of eight young children. Their first book will be on sale at our event.

Dannah Gresh, a special guest at our Friday evening session, uses a captivating blend of transparency and humor to deliver meaty Bible teaching to her audiences. Through her anointed teachings, she is known for making readers and listeners cry as they sense the reality of God through the truth of His Word. One of the top selling Christian youth authors in the world, she is known for her best-selling books And the Bride Wore White and the Secret Keeper series. Dannah's most recent release targeting adult women is The Secret of the Lord. She is the founder and director of Pure Freedom Ministries.

Rhonda Marsh, our guest soloist, is a singer/songwriter that ministers with power, passion and the presence of the Lord. Her soulful vocals draw you into a deep place of worship. She is a lead vocalist at Christian Life Assembly in Camp Hill. Growing up as a pastor's kid and a 'grand-pastor's kid', Rhonda learned lessons early on in life about what it truly means to love God through loving others...even when it costs you something. She is a forward thinker, teacher, and speaker, with a vision for how the church can continue to change and adapt to reach the emerging generations.
